

JIM BASHORE

Jim Bashore served in many capacities during his tenure at Carpinteria High School. He was a teacher, coach, official, athletic director and a beloved friend/mentor to all during his 30 years at CHS. Graduating from Oxnard High School in 1950, played basketball and performed in track. He later graduated from CSU Northridge with a physical education degree, then completed his master's degree in education from Azusa Pacific University.

Jim began his Carpinteria career, as both a teacher and coach. He was head boys' basketball coach from 1967-1979, with his Warrior's accumulating a 180-80 win-loss mark, while also achieving 5 Tri-Valley League Championships. Six of his players earned All-CIF honors during that time.

Additionally, Coach B, led Warrior sports as Athletic Director from 1984-94, was head coach of the Girl's basketball program from 1995-97 and also assisted the Girl's teams from 2003-2005.

Always and active member of the CIF, Jim served on the CIF Season of Sports, Regional Playoff, and Boys and Girls Basketball Seeding Committees during his career. In 1997, he was recognized for the prestigious CIF Gold Life Pass Award. Jim was also inducted into the Southern California Interscholastic Basketball Coaches Association Hall of Fame in 1996 and not to be outdone, the SCIBCA additionally acknowledged him with the "Ray Plutko" Lifetime Achievement Award in 2020.

Of worthy note, Carpinteria High School has hosted the Jim Bashore Holiday Classic, (Christmas Break) for many years in honor of his dedicated time and service to Carpinteria High School and the surrounding community. In 2005, Coach Bashore passed away, leaving behind his wife, Bambi Rock Bashore, daughters Jeanene (Glenn) LaFevers, Kimberly Bashore and six grandchildren..
