

KRISTEN MOORE | 2014 INDUCTEE

KRISTEN MOORE | 2014 INDUCTEE

- Head coach Kirsten Moore has brought the Westmont Women's Basketball program to new heights as winners of the NAIA National Championship. The Warriors posted a record of 30-4 on the way to the 2012-13 national title.
- Team captain while playing for the University of Oregon. After graduating, Moore served as an assistant coach in the Duck's women's basketball program for three years, during which time Oregon won two PAC-10 championships and made three trips to the NCAA Tournament.
- As a collegiate athlete, Moore participated in four NCAA Tournaments and was selected by her teammates as the 1998 Bev Smith Most Inspirational Player. Twice she earned Academic All-PAC-10 honors & in 1998 she was nominated for regional GTE Academic All-American recognition.
- Assistant women's basketball coach at the University of California Berkeley for four years.
- Came to Westmont in 2005
- The Warriors also won the 2012-13 Golden State Athletic Conference regular season championship by going 14-0.
- Led the Warriors to a 17-13 record in her second season and a trip to the NAIA National Tournament.
- In 2007-08, the Warriors compiled a record of 21-9, finished the season with a #19 ranking and made a return trip to the NAIA National Tournament.
- In 2008-09, Moore's team matched the school record of 22 wins in a season and made their third trip in as many years to the National Championship as the NAIA's sixteenth-ranked team.
- The Warriors returned to the National Tournament during the 2010-11 as the NAIA's twenty-third ranked team. In the 2011-12 season, Westmont compiled a record of 31-4, reaching the quarterfinals of the NAIA National Tournament and earning a number four national ranking. Over the past two season, Westmont has accrued a record of 61-8.
- Also serves as Associate Director of Athletics