KRISTI ROHR-TAYLOR | 2016 INDUCTEE

Kristi Rohr Taylor's basketball career can be summed up in two words: reliable and consistent. She always came to the gym to play, and she got the job done. Kristi attended Santa Ynez Valley Union High School from 1992-1996 in Santa Ynez, California.

Her high school accomplishments include:

- Street and Smith All-American in 1994, 1995, 1996
- CIF Southern Section First Team in 1994, 1995, 1996
- CIF Division IV Co-Player of the Year in 1996 Los Padres Leagues MVP in 1994, 1995, 1996
- School record holder for career points (2,317) and rebounds (1,131)
- Student Sports Preseason Top 10 West Coast and Top 50 National Pick in 1996
- Kristi continued her basketball career at UCSB. In addition to her solid playing, she also excelled as a student.

Her college accomplishments include:

- Big West All-Freshman Team
- First Team All-Big West in 1998, 1999, 2000
- GTE Academic All-American in 1999 and 2000
- 2000 Big West Scholar Athlete of the Year
- UCSB Golden Eagle Scholar Athlete Award in 1999 and 2000
- Graduated as school record holder for career points (1,720)
- Overall record at UCSB: 107 – 20
- Big West record: 61 – 2

Kristi went on to play professionally for Asteras Exharion in Athens, Greece, where she led her team to their best finish in franchise history.

After a season in Greece, Kristi returned to UCSB where she earned her Masters of Education. Currently she is teaching math at Lake Oswego High School in Lake Oswego, Oregon. She lives in Portland, Oregon, with her husband Graham and 3 daughters, Rory (10), Annika (8), and Brooke (1).
